A Message from the President Tony Mankus

Hello everyone. We held our last meeting at the Life Center, where we enjoyed fried chicken from Remke's, and other goodies. One person who wasn't there was Shirley Lonneman who came early, didn't find anyone there and thought that the Meeting/Lunch was cancelled. Sue Weider called to see where she was, and that's when we learned what happened. It was kind of quiet at the beginning of our lunch because Shirley wasn't there to keep us all talking. In the end, we over came the lack of conversation, and became much more talkative. Please come to the October meeting Shirley. We really missed you.

Lena Homan missed our meeting also, but she emailed saying that she was on her way to Bermuda instead. Good move, you missed Hurricane Florence. Hope you had a good time.

The next two months will include our Thanksgiving dinner/meeting on November 3, 2018, and we will have our annual Christmas Party on December 1, 2018. More information on the events will be forthcoming in the November Newsletter.

The next COH meeting is scheduled for October 6, 2018 (which is also my 21st anniversary date). One order of business will be election of Officers and Trustees.
